Calcutta, the 14th February 1911.

Sir,

I am directed to state, for x x x your information, that the Inns of Court ~~of~~ have suggested that the Certificates of Identity which are granted to natives of India visiting England for admission as students for the Bar would be more useful if each certificate bore the signature of the person purported to be identified witnessed by the authority granting it. The Government of India accept the suggestion and they desire that (x x x x with your permissio the practice indicated by the Inns of Court should be followed in future not only in the case of Indian students and others who are visiting England, but also in the case of those who proceed to -- Japan or to America for purposes of study or otherwise.

I have, etc.,
